An Post ran a national competition on hand writing with a historical theme this year year in line with previous competitions. The entrants had to write a letter using the the Coggalbeg Hoard, a Bronze age site discovery in Co Roscommon, as the theme of the letter.

Allie Cleary, Second Year Rang Lia was first in the Junior Certificate Category for the competition. The prize involved a trip to the GPO Interpretative Centre for Allie’s class and an award ceremony (attached photo) where Allie was presented with her certificate.