Congratulations to our Young Scientists and their mentors on their great achievements at YSE 2015. The students were marvellous ambassadors for the school throughout the exhibition. Great credit is due to the teachers who supervised the projects, provided superb support, coached the students for the judging and cared for them 24/7 over the four days. Well done to all students who submitted a proposal or a project.

Go to BTYSE2015 Photogallery

121 first years travelled to the Young Scientists on Saturday and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Thank you to the science department for organising the trip and to the teachers who accompanied them. We won 7 awards in total, 2 thirds and 3 highly commended plus 1 Special Award and 1 display award as follows:

Third (Senior Technology)
'To make Marathon Kayaking safer and eliminate human error'
Students: Seán Cahill & Tim O Niaha
Teacher: Julie Gleeson

Third (Senior Social & Behaviourial Sciences)
'Anailís staitistiúil ar an tionchar atá ag tacóirí litriú ar chumas litriú daoine óga'
Students: Roisín Mac Manamon, Roisín Mac Artain & Shauna Breathnach
Teacher: Julie Gleeson

Highly Commended (Intermediate Chemical, Physical & Mathematical Sciences)
‘E-cigarettes, are they really the better option?’
Students:Aileen Carroll & Kaitlyn Bradfield
Teacher: Julie Gleeson

Highly Commended (Intermediate Biological & Ecological Sciences)
‘The effect that earthworms have on the level of nitrates and phosphaes found in various mineralised soils.
Students: Siúin Ní Mhuineacháin & Aela UíThuathail
Teacher: Julie Gleeson

Highly Commended (Intermediate Biological & Ecological Sciences)
‘To fear or not to fear’
Students: Siobhán O’Regan, Chelsea Love & Emma Sullivan
Teacher: Lorraine Marron

Special Award (Eily Lilly)
E-cigarettes, are they really the better option?’
Students:Aileen Carroll & Kaitlyn Bradfield
Teacher: Julie Gleeson