Thanks to Jay, Maria, Zack and Amy, members of the Student Council, who attended the Cork Matters 'World Cafe' event. The Cork Matters project aims to gather information about what life is like for children, teenagers and their families who live in the Ballincollig community.