Students from Rang Traolach in Transition Year, accompanied by Mr. Owens, visited a book sale hosted by the Cork County Library on Friday the 17th of February. Students bought books, were shown around the library facilities and were also afforded the opportunity to rent DVDs. The County Library offers students a range of facilities such as study desks, free WIFI access and has a large selection of books for borrowing. Students who are members of Ballincollig Library can avail of these services in the County Library.
